Certificate No. 200610954CNA

) Reference No. 14-01561

The Oregon State Board of Nursing (Board) is the state agency responsible for licensing, regulating and disciplining certain health care providers, including Certified Nursing Assistants. Rachel Inman (Certificate Holder) was issued a Certified Nursing Assistant certificate by the Board on May 2, 2006.

This matter was considered by the Board at its meeting on October 15, 2014.

On September 25, 2014, a Notice stating that the Board intended to revoke the Certified Nursing Assistant certificate of Rachel Inman was sent to her via certified and first-class mail to her address of record. The Notice alleged that Certificate Holder brought drugs into her workplace, used drugs in a manner dangerous to herself, and made misrepresentations to the Board about her drug use.

The Notice granted Certificate Holder an opportunity for hearing if requested within twenty (20) days of the mailing of the Notice. No such request for hearing has been received by the Board. The Notice designated the Board's file on this matter as the record for purposes of default.

NOW THEREFORE, after consideration of its records and files related to this matter, the Board enters the following Order:

-I-

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based on the evidence submitted through the Notice and the agency file in this case, the Board finds the following:

1. Certificate Holder was issued a Certified Nursing Assistant certificate in the state of Oregon on May 2, 2006.
2. On or about April 11, 2014, Certificate Holder was reported to the Board for allegedly using heroin and submitting synthetic urine during a "reasonable cause" drug test at work. The Board opened an investigation into the matter.

3. In March 2014, Certificate Holder brought a syringe containing heroin to her workplace.
4. On or about April 10, 2014, Certificate Holder attempted to falsify a drug test when she submitted a sample for a “reasonable cause” drug test that was inconsistent with human urine.
5. Certificate Holder made misrepresentations to the Board on several occasions relating to the issues under investigation. Certificate Holder did not disclose her unlawful use of controlled substances on her CNA renewal applications submitted to the Board in April 2010 and May 2012. On or about May 9, 2014, Certificate Holder provided a written statement to the Board and made false statements when Certificate Holder stated she did not use illegal drugs. On or about July 11, 2014, Inman participated in an interview with Board staff and made false statements when Certificate Holder initially denied using heroin.
6. During the Board interview on or about July 11, 2014, Certificate Holder ultimately acknowledged she had been using heroin for approximately the last seven years.
7. On September 25, 2014, Board staff mailed a Notice of Proposed Revocation to Certificate Holder via first-class and certified mail. The Notice granted Certificate Holder twenty (20) days from the date of the mailing of the Notice to request a hearing. The Notice also designated that the agency file would be the record for purposes of default.
8. Certificate Holder failed to respond to the Notice of Proposed Revocation within the required twenty days.

-II-

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. That the Board has jurisdiction over the Certificate Holder, Rachel Inman, and over the subject matter of this proceeding.
2. That Certificate Holder’s conduct is in violation of ORS 678.442(2)(f) and OAR 851-063-0090(2)(h), (7)(a), (9)(a) & (9)(b).
3. That Certificate Holder defaulted on the Notice by not requesting a hearing within the allotted twenty (20) days and, as a result, pursuant to ORS 183.417(3), the Board may enter a Final Order by Default.

-III-
